- ((I am wanting to grow and be a part of a company.))-

I am a hardworking and reliable individual with management skills, knowledge and diverse background encompassing roles in automotive service, warehouse operations, and customer service. Possessing over 10 years of experience in auto mechanics and a solid foundation in areas such as tire and lube services, shipping and receiving, and general labor. Proven ability to learn quickly, adapt to different work environments, and contribute effectively to team efforts. Eager to leverage technical skills and strong work ethic in a new opportunity. Willing to relocate anywhere and authorized to work in the US for any employer. As a hobby I love building custom computers installing custom operating systems overclocking I would love to get into IT as a career and a home. If I could find a company to train me and help me grow my career in IT for the love and passion I have for it would be a dream come true.
